Local Option Sales Tax will be up for referendum vote at the upcoming November 2013 election. Though no formal action is required now, the Black Hawk County Elections office would like to have an idea of which cities will be participating in the countywide referendum. In addition, the BHC Board of Supervisors have asked for input from cities on extending the time period of the LOST vote from five years to ten years. There was a consensus from Council to re-implement the LOST for the next ten years, instead of five. Local Option Sales Tax

Jean Seeland, Youth Coordinator, from the Volunteer Center of Cedar Valley, made a presentation to Council on behalf of 4th grade students at Poyner Elementary School in their absence on getting a dog park in Evansdale. Poyner presentation-dog parks

Discussion: Mayor Deutsch stated that he spoke with the Mayor of Elk Run Heights, Gary Wurtz, on the possible purchase of the land in Elk Run, who was supportive of the idea. He added that Mr. Wurtz stated he would speak with his Council. Discussion

The Mayor reported that a letter was sent to the Army Corps of Engineers regarding the back yard erosion of homes on Oakwood Drive into the Cedar River asking the Corps to identify funding sources.

He added that he is working on an alternative to use the City's shaft pumps inside the gate wells of the levy instead of at the base of the levy where the pump has to pump up over the berm of the levy.

John Peverill reported a junk vehicle at a residence on the corner of East End and Evans Road.

There being no further discussion, Hibben /Loftus adjourned the meeting at 6:17 p.m. Ayes-Four. Motion carried. Adjourn
