

CITY OF EVANSDALE STORM WATER COMMISSION
APRIL 9, 2015 9:30 A.M.
EVANSDALE CITY HALL

The Storm Water Commission met on April 9, 2015 at the Evansdale City Hall at 9:30 a.m. Rick Reuter, Commission Chair, called the meeting to order. Members present: Richard Clements, Loraine Atkins, Rick Reuter, and Kenny Loftus (arriving at 9:35). Members absent: None. Quorum present.

Clements/Atkins to approve the April 9, 2015 agenda. Ayes-Four. Motion carried.

Clements/Reuter to approve the September 25, 2014 minutes. Ayes-Four. Motion carried.

Reuter introduced the new Storm Water contact person, Christopher Schares, as Rick announced he will be retiring at the end of June. Reuter stated that Schares is certified in Storm Water and will be an asset to our organization going forward.

Reuter updated the commission on the 2015 Cedar Valley Erosion and Sediment Control Conference to be held in Waterloo. Loraine Atkins, Commission Member stated that she is interested in attending and would like to be notified of the date and time of conference.

Reuter discussed the Storm Water insert for the City newsletter. No comments received.

Reuter updated the commission on the visit from DNR and Iowa Army Corps of Engineers to review river bank erosion in Casebeer Heights. He explained that the DNR/Army Corps stated that the river bank is personal property and no funding is available for personal property and that the homeowners need to maintain the property. Mayor Faas stated that he had contacted the homeowners with the suggestions that the DNR/Corps had made and the homeowners had no interest to proceed with any of the suggested projects. Loftus expressed that if they are not willing to maintain their properties the city is not liable for any repairs.

Reuter stated that the DNR will be performing a Storm Water Permit audit for the city and is hopeful that all will go well.

Atkins questioned planning & zoning regulations and the approval of projects before they move forward in our city. Reuter stated that the city is in compliance with all city projects.

There being no further discussion, Loftus/Clements motioned to adjourn at 9:55 a.m. Ayes-Four. Motion carried

DeAnne Kobliska, City Clerk
